THE CONFERENCE

In the interconnected world of the 21st century, every action has a ripple effect. From a tweet that triggers a stock market crash, a decision to invest in renewable energy that transforms a country's economy, to a diplomatic handshake that changes the balance of power. As we navigate this Brave New World, the 14th Limassol Economic Forum aims to provide a comprehensive understanding of our collective global agenda, its complexities and its contradictions. To challenge perspectives, spark conversations, and encourage a nuanced understanding of the intricate global network we all are part of. The world is changing faster than ever, and it's essential to understand the various elements at play in order to make informed decisions, be it in business, policy, or our daily lives. After all, the brave new world is not just a prospect of the future; it is the reality that we inhabit today.

The Limassol Economic Forum is the biggest current affairs conference in Cyprus where business leaders, government officials, diplomats and academics discuss global issues on the economy, international relations, energy, investing, technology and entrepreneurship.

The 14th Limassol Economic Forum will serve as a unique platform where global, European and national thought leaders, policy makers, entrepreneurs, and technocrats will elaborate on the below thematic pillars:

1. Economics
2. Global Markets, Finance and Investing
3. Energy
4. Diplomacy, International Relations, Security
5. Technology, Innovation
6. Business Leaders, Entrepreneurship

ATTENDANCE

The Limassol Economic Forum is addressed to business leaders and decision makers such Board Members, CEOs, Managing Directors, and other senior management executives from all the major corporations in Cyprus and abroad. The Forum also as a rule welcomes politicians, diplomats, other government officials, but also entrepreneurs, academics, and other international experts on political and economic issues.

Attendance to the Limassol Economic Forum is by invitation, but a limited number of seats is available for non-invited guests upon request and subject to approval.

Registration fee for non-invited applicants: €600* + 19% VAT

*Privileged rates apply for applicants working for organisations that have already received an invitation.

IN ASSOCIATION WITH

The Cyprus LSE Alumni Association has been founded by LSE graduates living and working in Cyprus to support the affiliation between its alumni members and LSE. The association's main objectives are to promote and enhance collaboration among its alumni members in Cyprus; to host various events of a socioeconomic nature in liaison with LSE; and to facilitate the dissemination of knowledge and experience from LSE. Building on the success of the Limassol Economic Forum since its inception, the LSE and The Cyprus LSE Alumni Association are participating in this year's event with a number of speakers and alumni, to address modern challenging times. LSE and The Cyprus LSE Alumni Association have been actively supporting the Limassol Economic Forum from day one believing in the development of Cyprus as a regional forum for bringing together the necessary brain power, know-how and experiences to deal with the ever increasing challenges of the local, regional and global economy and geopolitical dynamics.

WITH THE SUPPORT OF

The Cyprus Shipping Chamber is the trade association of the Shipping Industry in Cyprus. The main purpose of the Chamber is to promote the interests of Cyprus Shipping and to further the reputation of the Cyprus flag. The Chamber also acts as a lobbying group for the promotion and safeguard of the legitimate interests of its Member-companies, at national and international level. On the local front, the Chamber co-operates very closely with the Government in all shipping related matters. Moreover, the Chamber operates as a roving ambassador of Cyprus Shipping through its membership and active participation at the International Chamber of Shipping (ICS) and the European Community Shipowners' Associations (ECSA).

The Limassol Chamber of Commerce & Industry was established in its present form in 1962 and represented the first concerted effort of the Limassol business community to have an organization to defend its interests and promote economic growth. From its very inception the Limassol Chamber of Commerce & Industry has played a leading role in the economic life of Limassol, either by operating as a pressure group towards the realisation of vitally important economic projects or by developing concrete initiatives of its own in that direction. The Chamber remains as committed as ever to its twin objectives, of supporting its members in various ways, and lobbying for development projects that will enhance Limassol's competitiveness and upgrade its inhabitants' quality of life.
